

This is the best address Miss Harriet Christie at United Church training school could give me for Shiga. It is in care of her sister who studied Social Work here after Shiga went back.

Mrs K. Ishimura
% Miss Michiko Hasegawa
% National Y. W. C. A.
15-4 Chome, Kudan,
Chiyoda
Ku
Tokio
Japan

This is a message about her that may go in the newsletter.
She is married and has 2 children, a boy, & a girl. She is very active politically doing a great deal of interpreting. She has travelled very much abroad as an interpreter visiting many European countries

It is thought that she has not been well lately - perhaps her old trouble is back.

Toronto - Loretto Abbey - Health &
Phys. Ed. - 3 years.

St. Joseph's College School - 800 girls - until 1947 -

Taught swimming for Board of Education during the summers.

Married in 1945. one of my bridesmaids "Shirley Muddiman."

In 1947 we moved to a sleepy little town Lincoln - population 3,000 - now boasts 10,000 which includes 4 Hills.

David is an accredited appraiser and follows his career in Toronto. Son Paul 11 years old - "Our athlete" - also shows some musical and artistic talent (one of his drawings won a prize at the Canadian National Exhibition last year). Heather - 8 years old - is an average student, happy and lovable whose ambition is first to be a mother (we'll have to change that idea) and then a nurse.

Life is very busy with church & community ^{activities} choir (have studied voices & do solo work) and strong political ties. (at?)

Hobby, Bridge especially!
